Food Transformation for All: What can business do to build resilience?

Join our breakfast Side Event at the EAT Stockholm Food Forum

Wednesday, 12 June
07:00-08:30
Quality Hotel Globe, Stockholm
Venus Room, 3rd floor
Open Event
What can business do to build resilience?

Global Resilience Partnership (GRP) and its partners have been assessing what it takes to deliver resilient food and agriculture systems in vulnerable and fragile states. Speakers will highlight how business can integrate resilience in food value chains benefiting markets and communities in the least developed countries.

Hosts
- Deon Nel, Chief Executive Officer, GRP
- Line Gordon, Director, Stockholm Resilience Centre

Inspiration Talks
- Johan Rockström, Director, Potsdam Institute for Climate Impact Research, Advisory Council Member, GRP
- David Nabarro, Strategic Director, 4SD & co-facilitator for Nature-based Solutions Workstream, UN SG Climate Action Summit

Power Pitches
- Assan N’gombe, Resilience Officer, Alliance for Green Revolution in Africa (AGRA)
- Theo del Jager, President, World Farmers’ Organisation
- Scaling Up Nutrition (SUN) Movement Representative

Moderator
- Maya Rebermark, Head of Communications, GRP

This interactive session will also outline engagement opportunities for the UN SG Climate Summit and the Building a Resilient Future event on 22 September 2019

#ResilienceMatters
#eatforum19